UPDATE to Harrison Township Drowning Investigation

Sheriff Anthony Wickersham reports that the Macomb County Sheriff's Office Dive Team has recovered the body of the 58 year old Milford man who had "gone missing" in the early evening hours of Friday, 07-31-15 on Lake St. Clair.

Mr. Rowley's body was recovered at 7:10pm, Monday evening (08-03-15). A Macomb Sheriff Aviation Unit located the body and Sheriff Marine Division deputies and Dive Team Members recovered the body from approximately 12 feet of water. The body was approximately 1/2 mile out of the original search area.

Mr. Rowley had been aboard a 40-foot Trojan (boat) along with three other persons, when he went overboard.

Sheriff Marine Division and Dive Team have been searching tirelessly during the daytime hours in an attempt to locate the man.

The drowning victim is Keith Rowley, 58. Mr. Rowley was the Chief of the Southfield Fire Department.
